

Biography – Carey Carson

Qualifications:

- Graduate Certificate in Professional Management - Three out of four units completed with high distinctions
- Diploma of Project Management
- Diploma of Leadership & Management
- Diploma of Training Design & Development
- Diploma of Vocational Education & Training
- Certificate IV in Training & Assessment
- Advanced Diploma of Community Services (Disability Work)

Memberships and Associations:

- Australian Institute of Project Management
- Asia Institute of Learning & Performance
- Australasian Interim Executive Association

Relevant Experience:

Carey has extensive experience in the VET sector with skills in Workshop Facilitation, Project Management, Business Planning & Development, Performance Management, Training Needs Analysis, Coaching and Auditing.

In 2021 Carey joined the MTS team of training professionals as a Project Management Facilitator and currently delivers project management qualifications at Certificate IV and Diploma levels.

Carey's relevant experience includes:

- Company directorships of five companies, three of which were Registered Training Organisations
- Lead facilitator for the above RTOs, delivering public and corporate training programs throughout Australia.
- Executive Board member for a conglomerate of three companies, with specialist responsibilities for corporate branding, marketing and human resource management
- Business consultant in the fields of competency needs analyses, staff training and performance management, for both private and Government entities
- Developer and facilitator of an Emerging Leaders program for the Queensland Government

- Validation consultant for a large independent Sydney based RTO in preparation of a five-year audit from ASQA.
- Developer and facilitator of a customised course for indigenous trainers in the Resources (mining) industry.
- Employment advocate for an International Immigration Insurance Company.
- Facilitator of awareness training for various companies on subjects including bullying and harassment, discrimination, and access and equity.
- Facilitator for strategic planning workshops for local government, not-for-profit and private entities